

Journalists in the Firing Line: The film

The World Association of Newspapers has created a film highlighting the dangerous situations journalists around the world are often put in while doing their work. Available on YouTube, the film is entitled "Press Freedom Worldwide."

Why are the journalists in the film in trouble?

Select the most moving scene in the film. Why? How did it make you feel?

How do you think citizens in the countries portrayed will react after seeing this film? Explain why.

What message would you like to express to the families of these journalists?

Describe what a free press would look like either in your country or some place where it is constrained. Exercise your freedom of expression in a film, skit or play.

Let's say you were in another context, say a newsroom, would you have exercised your freedom of expression in the same manner?
